Complaint

The music group by the of name Tool, based in Los Angeles, have used me to base their music on. They use my name in their music. They have used my likeness in video on screens on stage in live performances. They managed to get into my apartment and place a ring, that you would wear on your hand inside. I just recently found a picture of the ring in the booklet insert of the one compact disc I'm referring to.

It took four years for the Shreveport Police to take a report about the ring. I made the report in May of this year.

I'm seeking damages for invasion of privacy from the use of my name, the images, and the trespassing of ten million dollars.

Under penalty of perjury, I declare that the information given in this complaint is true and correct.
